Mass Spectrometry in Neonatal Medicine and Clinical Diagnosis—The Potential Use of Mass Spectrometry in Neonatal Brain Monitoring

In the September 2006 issue of Clinics in Perinatology, an error appears on pages viii and 729 in the title of Drs. Alan R. Spitzer and Donald Chace's article. The correct article title is "Mass Spectrometry in Neonatal Medicine and Clinical Diagnosis—The Potential Use of Mass Spectrometry in Neonatal Brain Monitoring."
