

Index

Note: Page numbers of article titles are in boldface type.

A

- Acne therapy, 352–354
 - and 1450-nm laser, 354
 - and photodynamic therapy, 353–354
 - and potassium titanyl phosphate laser, 354
 - and pulsed dye laser, 354
 - and radiofrequency technology, 354
 - and suction with pulsed light, 354
- Acne type
 - and skin sensitivity, 366
- Aestheticians, 322–324
- AHA. See Alpha hydroxy acids.
- ALA. See Aminolevulinic acid.
- Alexandrite lasers
 - and hair removal, 329, 346
- Allergic type
 - and skin sensitivity, 367
- Alpha hydroxy acids, 365
- Aminolevulinic acid
 - and photodynamic skin rejuvenation, 334
 - and photothermal destruction of hair follicles, 330
- Antioxidants, 369
- AQP3. See Aquaporin-3.
- Aquaporin-3, 360–361

B

- Baumann Skin Type Indicator, 359–370
- Benchmarking
 - and managing medical spas, 314–315
- Bipolar radiofrequency and infrared light
 - and tissue tightening, 352
- BOTOX. See Botulinum toxin.
- Botulinum toxin, 344–345, 407
- Branding
 - and marketing of medical spas, 313, 318
- BSTI. See Baumann Skin Type Indicator.
- Business reports
 - and managing medical spas, 314

C

- Cellulite reduction
 - and bipolar radiofrequency, infrared light, vacuum and massage, 349–350
 - and endermology, 349
 - and ionithermie, 349
 - and laser plus vacuum massage, 350–351
 - treatments for, 328, 336–338, 349–351
- Chemical peels, 342–344

- Collagen and polypeptide ingredients
 - and skin hydration, 365
- Cosmeceuticals, 317–318, 323
- Cosmoderm, 345
- Cosmoplast, 345
- Cross-merchandising skin care products
 - and displaying expert recommendations, 384
 - and leveraging the selling potential of one's Web site, 385
 - natural pairings, 384
 - and service bundles, 385
 - and staying relevant and related, 384
 - and timing, 385

D

- Dermatology spas. See Medical spas.
- DermaWave, 351
- Diode lasers
 - and hair removal, 329, 346
- Dry skin
 - treatment suggestions for, 363

E

- Electro-optical synergy technology
 - and photothermal destruction of hair follicles, 330
- Emollients
 - and skin hydration, 365
- Endermology
 - and cellulite reduction, 349
 - and medical spas, 407
- Ethical issues
 - and medical spas, 323–325, 389–390
- Ethics
 - of dispensing skin care products, 323–325

F

- FACES. See Functional aspiration controlled electrothermal stimulation.
- 1450-nm laser
 - to treat acne, 354
- Functional aspiration controlled electrothermal stimulation, 336, 352

G

- Glycerin
 - and skin hydration, 364

H

- Hair follicle destruction
 - mechanisms of, 328–331
- Hair removal, 328–331
 - and alexandrite lasers, 329, 346
 - and diode lasers, 329, 346
 - and intense pulsed light, 346
 - and Nd:YAG lasers, 329–330, 346
- Hair removal lasers, 328, 346–347
- Health and wellness services
 - at medical spas, 318–319
- Humectants
 - and skin hydration, 363–364
- Hydroxy acids
 - and skin hydration, 365

I

- Incorporating a medical spa into a physician-run practice, 307–319
- Infrared light
 - and tissue tightening, 352
- Injectable fillers, 345–346, 407
- Intense pulsed light
 - for hair removal, 346
 - and radiofrequency therapy for hair removal, 346
- Intense pulsed light photorejuvenation, 331–335, 348
 - and absorption curve of hemoglobin, 333
 - adverse reactions to, 334–335
 - and aminolevulinic acid, 334
 - and emission spectrum of light head, 332
 - and poikiloderma of civatte, 333
 - and telangiectasias, 331–332
- Ionithermie
 - and cellulite reduction, 349
- IPL. See Intense pulsed light.

J

- Jessner's solution
 - for chemical peels, 342–344
- Juvederm, 345

K

- KTP laser. See Potassium titanyl phosphate laser.

L

- Lactic acid
 - and skin hydration, 365
- Laser treatments, 407

M

- Management
 - of medical spas, 314–317

- Manicures and pedicures
 - and medical spas, 407
- Marketing
 - of medical spas, 313–314
- Massage therapy
 - and medical spas, 307–308, 313, 317, 323–324, 407–408
- Medical facials, 344
- Medical-legal considerations in the medical spa environment, 387–390
- Medical spa marketing, 391–401
 - and advantage with many new choices, 382
 - and advertising budgets, 394
 - and advertising campaigns, 394
 - and advertising tips, 399–400
 - and advertorials, 394
 - basics of, 393
 - and boilerplate programs, 397
 - and brochures and service menus, 393–394
 - and charity events, 401
 - and city and regional magazines, 395
 - and community and metropolitan newspapers and magazines, 395
 - and cooperative direct mail envelopes, 397
 - creating new solutions for, 401
 - and defining unique service advantages, 391–392
 - and detached address labels and postcards, 397
 - and direct mail marketing, 395–396
 - and disclaimers, 399
 - and dollars off, 399
 - and free items, 399
 - and free-standing inserts, 397
 - and introducing new services, 400
 - and joining medical associations, 400
 - and logos and corporate imagery, 393
 - and market-driven strategies, 401
 - and mission statements, 393
 - and new patient kits, 398
 - and newsletters, 314, 316, 324–325, 396
 - one way versus no way, 391
 - and personalized consultation books, 397
 - and photography sessions, 398
 - and point-of-purchase merchandising, 398
 - and postcard campaigns, 396
 - and pricing strategies, 394
 - and print advertising, 394–398
 - and promotional strategies, 398
 - and public relations and media relations strategies, 400–401
 - and radio and television broadcast advertising, 398–399
 - and seasonal promotions, 400
 - and solo direct mail, 396
 - and special events, 401
 - and staff recruitment marketing, 401
 - strategies for, 394
 - and targeted promotional strategies, 400 and upscale direct mail magazines, 396–397 and using colorful illustrations, 399

 and Web sites, 398
 and Yellow Pages, 399

Medical spas, 307–319, 321–325, 327–338, 341–355, 375–410 advertising for, 313–314, 317, 324 atmosphere of, 310
 and dispensing skin care products, 317–318, 408 emergence of, 308–309 and ethical issues, 323–325, 389–390 future of, 408–409 health and wellness services at, 318–319 history of, 307–308, 327–328, 403–405 implementing concept of, 310–313 and knowing state laws, 390 and legal considerations, 387–390 management of, 314–317 and marketing calendars, 393 marketing of, 313–314, 391–401 and negligence, 388 and policy and procedure, 389–390 procedures offered at, 309, 311–312, 341–355, 406–408 profit margin of, 314 and staff training, 390
 staffing of, 315–317, 324 and standard of care, 388–389 top specialties of, 392 versus traditional spas, 309–310 types of laser equipment used at, 341
 and Web sites, 408

Mesotherapy, 352

Microdermabrasion, 341–343, 406–407

Moisturizer types, 364

Monopolar radiofrequency
 and tissue tightening, 351

Mulholland six conversion stages to success, 381

N

Natural moisturizing factor, 361

Nd:YAG lasers
 and hair removal, 329–330, 346

Negligence
 and medical spas, 388

Newsletters
 and marketing of medical spas, 314, 316, 324–325, 396

NMF. See Natural moisturizing factor.

Nonmedically supervised, faux-dermatology spas, 409–410

Nonphysician practice of medicine dangers of, 328 reported problems of, 328

Nursing personnel
 at medical spas, 328

O

Occlusives
 for skin hydration, 363

P

PAR-2. See Protease-activated receptor-2.

Patient documentation
 and medical spas, 310

Patient satisfaction
 and marketing of medical spas, 314

PDL. See Pulsed dye laser.

PDT. See Photodynamic therapy.

Perlane, 345

Personal decisions in a dermatology spa, 321–325

Photoaging
 and treatment with intense pulsed light, 332–334

Photodynamic skin rejuvenation, 334

Photodynamic therapy, 330, 334
 to treat acne, 353–354

Photorejuvenation, 327, 331, 333–334, 346–349
 and potassium titanyl phosphate laser, 349
 and pulsed dye laser, 347, 349

Photothermal destruction of hair follicles, 329–331
 and aminolevulinic acid, 330 clinical technique, 329 and electro-optical synergy technology, 330 expected benefits of, 331 and laser selection, 329–330 and patient selection, 329 and pulsed, noncoherent broadband light sources, 330 treatment guidelines for, 330–331

Physician training
 and medical spas, 309–310

Poikiloderma of civatte
 and treatment with intense pulsed light, 333

Potassium titanyl phosphate laser and photorejuvenation, 349
 to treat acne, 354

Procedures offered in the medical spa environment, 341–355

Profit margin
 of medical spas, 314

Propylene glycol
 and skin hydration, 363

Protease-activated receptor-2, 367

Pulsed, noncoherent broadband light sources
 and photothermal destruction of hair follicles, 330

Pulsed dye laser and photorejuvenation, 347, 349
 to treat acne, 354

R

Radiesse, 345

Radiofrequency technology, 327–328, 330, 335–338

- Radiofrequency (continued) and intense pulsed light for hair removal, 346 and skin tightening, 336–337
 to treat acne, 354
- ReFirme ST, 352
- Rejuvenation, 327–338
- Restylane, 345
- Retinoids, 317
- RF. See Radiofrequency technology.
- Rosacea type
 and skin sensitivity, 366
- S
- Sculptra, 345
- Sebum production, 361–362
- Security cameras
 in medical spas, 316–317
- Selling skin care products in your medspa, 375–386
- Skin aging
 wrinkled versus tight, 368–369
- Skin care product sales and anticipating patients' behavior, 382 and assessing patient's needs, 380 and becoming one's own ambassador, 383–384 and building patient retention, 381–382 and closing the sale, 380–381, 385–386 and competition, 378–379 and conquering objections, 380 and cross-merchandising, 384 and customer loyalty program, 382
 and free items, 386
 and future pacing, 380
 and making current customers ambassadors, 383 and networking, 383 and patient feedback, 382 and patient mail outs, 382 and preventing buyers' remorse, 380 and private labeling, 379–380 and profit, 379
 and recognizing who is ready to buy, 385–386 and recruiting supporters, 383 and responding to questions with a return question, 386 and the science of service, 377–378 and specific terms, 386 trends versus simplicity, 379 and word-of-mouth referrals, 383
- Skin care products
 branding of, 318
 consumability of, 379
 demonstration of, 380 dispensed at medical spas, 317–318, 322–324, 375–386, 408 ethics of dispensing, 323–325 and Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, 376–377 and Food and Drug Administration issues, 376–377 marketability of, 378–379 packaging of, 318 process of selling, 380–381 quality of, 379
 regulatory overview of selling, 376–377
- Skin hydration, 360–365
 and collagen and polypeptide ingredients, 365 and emollients, 365 and glycerin, 364 and humectants, 363–364 and hydroxy acids, 365
 and lactic acid, 365
 and occlusives, 363
 oily versus dry, 360–362
 and propylene glycol, 363 and skin care for the oily-dry parameter, 362–365
- Skin pigmentation
 pigmented versus nonpigmented, 367–368
- Skin sensitivity, 365–367
 and acne type, 366
 and allergic type, 367
 and rosacea type, 366 sensitive versus resistant, 365–366
 and stinging type, 366–367
- Skin type combinations and changes, 369–370
- SmoothShapes, 350
- Spa dermatology: Past, present, and future, 403–411
- Spa dermatology. See Medical spas.
- Spas
 medical, 307–319, 321–325, 327–338, 341–355, 375–410
- Staffing
 of medical spas, 315–317, 324
- State laws
 and medical spas, 390
- Stinging type
 and skin sensitivity, 366–367
- Suction with pulsed light
 to treat acne, 354
- T
- TCA. See Trichloroacetic acid.
- Technology approaches to the medical spa: Art plus science equal rejuvenation, 327–340
- Telangiectasias
 and treatment with intense pulsed light, 331–332
- Telomers, 368
- TEWL. See Transepidermal water loss.
- ThermaCool, 351
- Tissue tightening, 335–336, 351–352
 and bipolar radiofrequency and infrared light, 352 and infrared light, 352

- and monopolar radiofrequency, 351
- and ultrasonography, 352
- and unipolar and bipolar radiofrequency, 351–352

Titan, 352

Transepidermal water loss, 360, 362–365

- and microdermabrasion, 342

Treatment modality flow sheet, 311–312

TriActive laser, 350

Trichloroacetic acid

- for chemical peels, 342–344

Tyrosinase, 367

U

Ultrasonography

- and tissue tightening, 352

Understanding and treating various skin types: The Baumann Skin Type Indicator, 359–373

Unipolar and bipolar radiofrequency

- and tissue tightening, 351–352

W

Waxing

- and medical spas, 408

X

Xerosis, 360–364, 367