Long-Term Quality of Life After Lung Resection

The article “Long-Term Quality of Life After Lung Resection,” authored by John Cannon and Thida Win, and published in the February 2008 issue of the Thoracic Surgery Clinics (pp. 81–91), has been retracted because portions of the article were copied verbatim from an article published in CHEST without attribution (Sugimura H, Yang P. Long-term survivorship in lung cancer: a review. Chest 2006;129(4):1088–97).
